EVENT PRICING

Good news! The prices listed in this brochure are all-inclusive, including accommodation for residential guests, and event meals and refreshments for all ticket types, and for the days and times shown. We offer residential event packages with en-suite rooms, which can be booked on a single or double occupancy basis. Please note that the prices listed in this brochure are for single occupancy, along with details of savings if you were to book as double occupancy (two sharing). Day event prices are non-residential and include all event meals and refreshments for the period shown.

Please note that events are available on a book in advance basis only and bookings will generally close about 3-5 days prior to an event. We are not generally able to include guests who turn up on the day unannounced on our events.

Our desire is to keep pricing as competitive as possible; however, as some event costs are much higher than others, due to the materials and services we provide as part of the event, you will see that we charge extra for some.

An example of this is where we provide all materials and equipment for our art/creative events, so guests don't have to bring this with them, and it also makes an opportunity for novices to try something new, without purchasing all the equipment..

Our bedrooms include bed linen, towels and tea/coffee making facilities, and have hair dryers.

ACCESSIBLE AND GROUND FLOOR ROOMS

Accessible rooms: Please note that we have limited accessible rooms available for booking. If you require this facility, we would ask you book well in advance to avoid any disappointment. These rooms do book up quickly.

Ground floor rooms: Please also note that our ground floor standard rooms may have a few steps up for access. If you require a ground floor room, again, we suggest you book early, as these rooms go quickly. Our rooms are booked on a first come first served basis, and if you don't give a preference at the time of booking, you could be allocated a first floor room. So it's really important you give us all the information needed at the time of booking.

Carer/helpers: Please note that whilst we will always be as helpful and accommodating as we can for those less able guests attending our events, guests booking must be able to move about the centre and care for themselves. We are unable to give care provision, and any guest, or relative, booking, and where you feel extra assistance is needed for mobility or medical needs, you should consider how you or any guest or relative booking will cope.

Anyone needing mobility or medical needs assistance will therefore need to ensure they bring someone who will be solely responsible to help them. In this instance, please request either, double occupancy (shared room), or a next-door room if more suitable, when booking a Carer/helper in, whichever is more appropriate. We will give a 50% discount to a person who comes as your assigned Carer/helper. Please read the events descriptions thoroughly to see if the event is suitable. For example, one event will require guests to stand for long periods and therefore will be unsuitable for those unable to do this.

INFORMATION

DAY EVENT PRICING

Pricing for our Day events are based on the number of meals and refreshments provided during the event day, and if any materials are provided. Which is why you will find some of our day event prices differ.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Please note that some events have been intentionally restricted to adults, and we haven't listed children/youth prices. However, where children and youth are included for an event, you will find listings of significantly reduced pricing. Please note that child/youth pricing assumes an adult will be sharing. Ages 0-4 are FREE to those events that include children.

GROUP BOOKINGS

If you would like to book a group of nine people or more on any of our events, to book and be paid for at the same time, please contact our bookings team on 01424 892244 for group booking prices.

SOAKING WORSHIP

As part of our 'Worship Wednesday' here at Ashburnham Place, we enjoy hosting a 'Soaking Worship' session in the Prayer Centre between *8:15 pm - 9:15 pm.

We encourage Jesus encounters as you read scripture, journal, dance or rest.

*Time or venue may occasionally change.

WIF

We offer Wi-Fi in all the conference rooms and guest public areas. However, due to the size of the site we do not guarantee Wi-Fi coverage in the bedrooms, although this is possible in some of the rooms.

MOBILE SIGNAL

As with the WiFi, we cannot guarantee mobile coverage across the site, especially as receiving signal can be highly dependent on a guest's network provider. In our experience, the best signal can be found in the Welcome Lounge (near Reception), the Front Terrace, and in some of the meeting rooms at the front of the building. Coverage in the bedrooms is not so good, however, and in some instances nonexistent. So you need to be aware that you may not get any signal in many areas of the building and grounds. We realise guests will on the odd occasion need to make an urgent call, and we can generally facilitate this from Reception via landline, if no signal is available. Please note these should be for emergencies only, and not for general day-to-day or social calls, and will need to be during Reception open hours.

PRAYER MINISTRY

Praying alone is so important, but sometimes we all really need someone else to pray with us. We are pleased to be able to offer prayer ministry sessions for guests. This will be with two or more of our trained prayer ministers who are part of the Ashburnham Place community. Please enquire at reception to arrange a session.

Tuesday 5th September 4pm - Friday 8th September 10am Time Away with Jesus

Speaker: Valerie Elyott

Time away with Jesus – The goal is to awaken hearts to the Lord's nearness, by providing an environment and atmosphere for personal quality time with the Lord, away from our usual distractions. Each session is facilitated in a way that encourages personal engagement with the Lord. Sessions will include:

- Times of worship and prayer.
- Reflective teachings on how to develop and maintain an intimate relationship with the Lord.
- · Personal time on the beautiful grounds of Ashburnham Place.

£270 En-Suite room per person / £240 Shared room per person (ACT732)

Tuesday 12th September 4pm - Friday 15th September 10am Yesterday, Today, Forever: The Letter to the Hebrews Speaker: Steve Wood

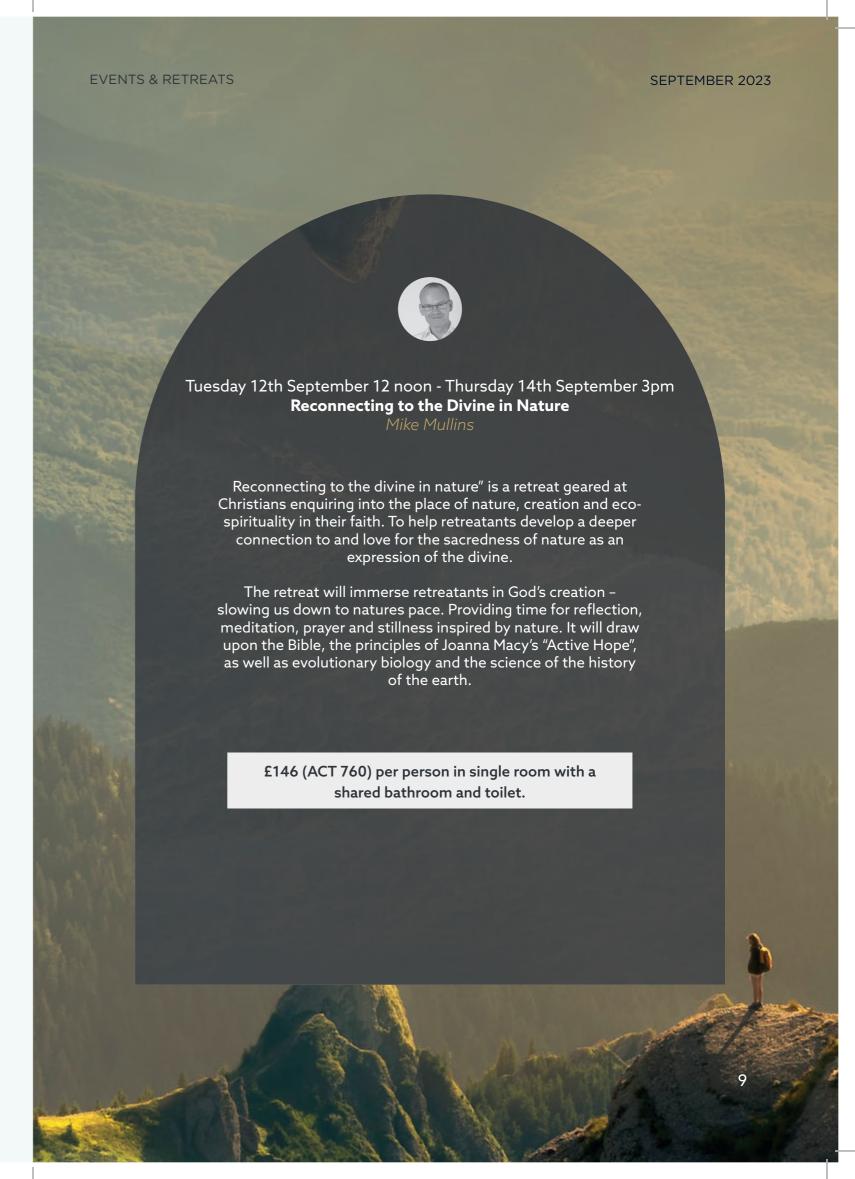

The letter to the Hebrews, with its focus on Jesus as mediator of the New Covenant, is the primary letter in the New Testament dealing with His heavenly priestly activity on behalf of God's people.

In this study course we will explore together the content and meaning of Hebrews through its use of the biblical story, the theme of 'journey', and the centrality of Jesus Christ who is 'the same yesterday, today and forever' (Heb.13:8). We hope that you will take away with you a fresh appreciation of this sometimes neglected, but significantly important part of the divine revelation in the New Testament.

Notes and further reading /study recommendations will be provided.

Steve is a member of the events team at Ashburnham, and with his wife Eve co-hosts the Time-Out breaks. He studied theology at Heythrop College (University of London), gaining a BA(Hons) in Biblical Studies and an MA in Christian Theology. world we live in.

Tuesday 19th September 12.00pm – Friday 22nd September 10.00am Creative Writing-Roots and Routes

Chris Leonard

£270 En-Suite room per person £240 Shared room per person (ACT722)

Take time in beautiful Ashburnham, writing both indoors and outside in its extensive grounds (weather permitting!) Because our creative God is present, each of these breaks turns out differently and far more happens than our writing. They provide a safe space to grow in confidence, both in writing and as a person.

We're very inclusive and welcome people with no writing experience and with plenty; your level of belief, education and language don't matter either. These aren't writing courses. The only commitment is to write at least one sentence a day and then to share it. We provide plenty of inspiration through pictures, words, music and worship. We laugh, relax, listen, are heard and often make new friends.

'Inside and Outside' are our themes for 2023. They'll spark writing ideas such as 'What's locked up inside?' 'Who's kept out in the cold?' You might view characters from the outside or the inside and set them in a restricted space's intensity or the freedom of the great outdoors!

Chris Leonard has published 21 books and has led many creative writing breaks and workshops at Ashburnham and elsewhere ever since 2001. In recent years, inspiring Celtic musicians and worship-leaders Nigel and Julie Cameron have added their amazing gift.

Wednesday 25th October 10.00am - 4.00pm The Power of God's Love

Marilyn Baker & Tracy Williamson

Have you experienced the power of God's love to heal your heart? Come and enjoy this special day conference with blind Gospel singer, Marilyn Baker and her ministry partner Tracy Williamson who is deaf. Marilyn will draw us into the Father's heart as she sings, leads worship and shares stories of how God has touched her life with His love.

Tracy who is an author and whose latest book, Unashamed will have just been published, will teach some of the Biblical keys to inner transformation and share insights from her own experiences. There will be opportunity to interact, reflect and respond to prophetic words and pictures and to have a time of personal prayer with Marilyn, Tracy or their team. Enjoy the family atmosphere, the lovely food and scenic grounds and most of all encounter the tender love of God.

Tuesday 28th November 4pm - Friday 1st December 10am An Advent Break - Great Expectations

Rosie Morgan

Great Expectations You are invited to our Advent break for women. There will be time for worship, teaching, rest and refreshment, all in the beauty of Ashburnham Place. Advent is a precious season and yet it can be a time when there are great expectations on us and we may be expecting much from others. But what of God's expectations for us and our expectations of Him?

We will take time to reflect on our own journey of faith, and on the Christmas story which is full of expectation. As we prepare for Christmas and the coming year, we will look with expectancy to the God who has far more for us than we could ever dream or imagine.

£270 En-Suite room per person £240 Shared room per person (ACT733)

Tuesday 21st November 4pm - Thursday 23rd November 4pm Encountering the Enneagram 1 Andy Proudfoot

How can I understand myself and others better?

Do you wonder why people act differently from you? For example, why are some people so fearful whereas others enjoy the challenges and dangers of life?

The Enneagram model of nine personality types helps explain so much about the way we behave. It is a unique way of understanding ourselves, our world, our God, and how we relate to others.

You will discover your place on the circle of nine personalities and see how you re-late to four other types. We will introduce the subtypes and see their effect on relationships.

Beginner - This workshop is open to complete Enneagram beginners. You don't need to know your type but it would certainly help you get the most out of the time if you did. As part of the team we have two trained Enneagram Typing Practitioners, if you would like a typing interview before the workshop please contact me to arrange this in advance for you. (annie.mackenzie@ashburnham.org. uk)

The cost of a typing interview is subsidised if you are on the retreat and therefore only £30 per interview.

While Ashburnham Place is run by the Ashburnham Christian Trust, this workshop is open to anybody of all faiths and none and as such we hope the content is accessible for all.

The workshop will take place in the Old Dairy, which is heated; meet at reception for directions.

£40 per person and includes materials and refreshments

Tuesday 30th January 4pm - Friday 2nd February 10am At The Threshold

Anna Robinson

In the Celtic calendar, Winter signifies the beginning of the year and Spring begins on the first of February, the midway point between the longest night (winter solstice) and the balance of light and dark (Spring Equinox). This retreat will be drawing on the theme of thresholds. Irish poet and philosopher John O Donohue wrote 'A threshold is not a simple boundary; it is a frontier that divides two different territories, rhythms and atmospheres' and it takes courage and a deep trust in the goodness within and without as the new and unknown unfolds.

This retreat is for those on a faith shifting journey, who perhaps no longer fit where they once belonged and/or find themselves in a liminal space, moving from certainty to embracing mystery. Take some time to slow down, be still, notice and listen... to your soul, to nature, to friend and stranger and to the Divine within you and beyond you.

£270 En-Suite room per person £240 Shared room per person (ACT757)

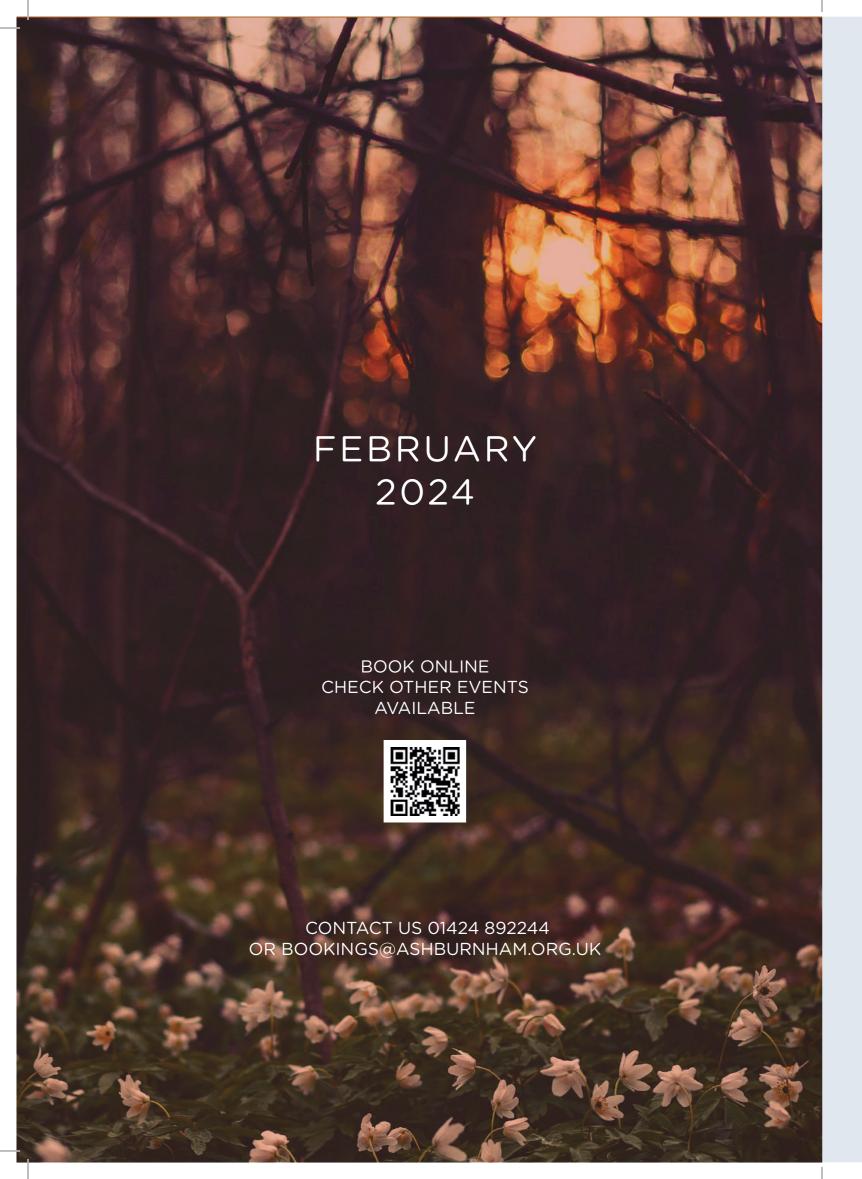

Tuesday 13th February 12pm - Friday 16th February 10am Creative Writing Chris Leonard

Take time in beautiful Ashburnham Place, writing both indoors and outside in its extensive grounds (weather permitting!) Because our creative God is present, each of these breaks turns out differently and far more happens than our writing. They provide a safe space to grow in confidence, both in writing and as a person.

ASHBURNHAM PLACE FEBRUARY 2024

Tuesday 6th February 4pm - Thursday 8th February 4pm Encountering the Enneagram 2 - Growth

Paul Wenham

A Journey towards understanding and development....
OUR PATHWAY TO GROWTH

How can I use the awareness of my Enneagram Type to change and grow?

Just knowing your type, although it is revealing, will not be enough to help you live more consistently as your best self.
Encountering the Enneagram Part 2 will explore the defences which hold our personality in place and map the journey we can take towards our best self. Using the narrative style, we will delve deeper into the subconscious drivers that lead to our personality traits, outlining our defence system.

We will then see what the Enneagram has to teach us about our best self and how we can use this knowledge as we go on the path of learning that can free us from the constraints and illusions of type.

More Info

Suitable for intermediate

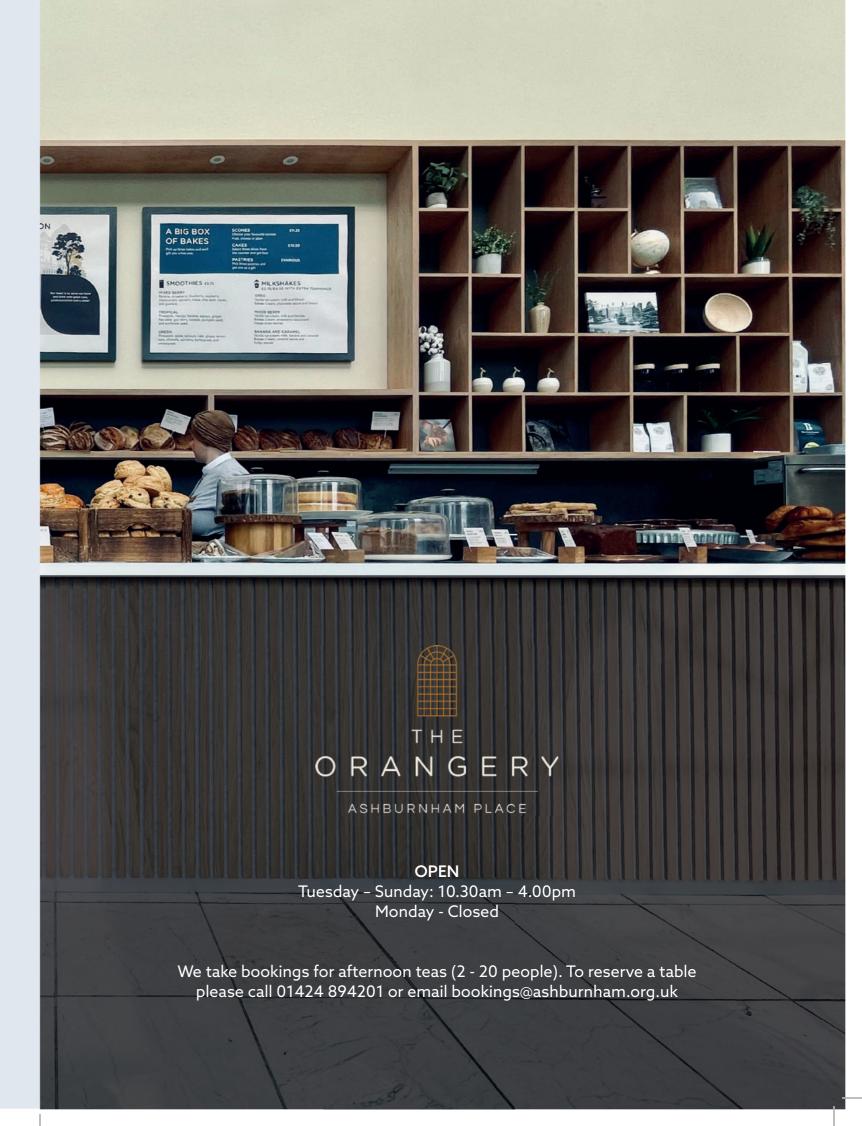

This workshop is open to guests who have been on a previous Ashburnham Enneagram workshop or who have some experience with the Enneagram. You will need to know your type for this workshop.

Having worked with the Enneagram already you will likely know your type, but if you would like a professional typing interview to be sure we have two trained Enneagram Typing Practitioners.

If you would like a typing interview before the workshop please contact our team to arrange this in advance for you. (annie. mackenzie@ashburnham.org.uk) The cost of a typing interview is subsidised if you are on the retreat and therefore only £30 per interview.

While Ashburnham Place is run by the Ashburnham Christian Trust this workshop is open to anybody of all faiths and none and as such we hope the content is accessible for all.

ASHBURNHAM PLACE MARCH 2024

Tuesday 26th March 4pm - Thursday 28th March 4pm Encountering the Enneagram 3 - Growth

Andrew Proudfoot & Paul Wenham

This residential retreat is designed to help those committed to their own inner work and who have found the enneagram to be a useful tool on this journey.

We will spend time together reflecting on the impact of our shadow and 'blind spots' on our growth, we will consider the role of spiritual disciplines and grace in our journey towards less defended living.

Drawing on the wisdom of established teachers, we will explore the various models for growth in more depth and consider how we might put them into practice in daily living. Our time together will include deepening our understanding gained from Enneagram 1 and 2 including working with subtype, the defence system, needs and focus of attention.

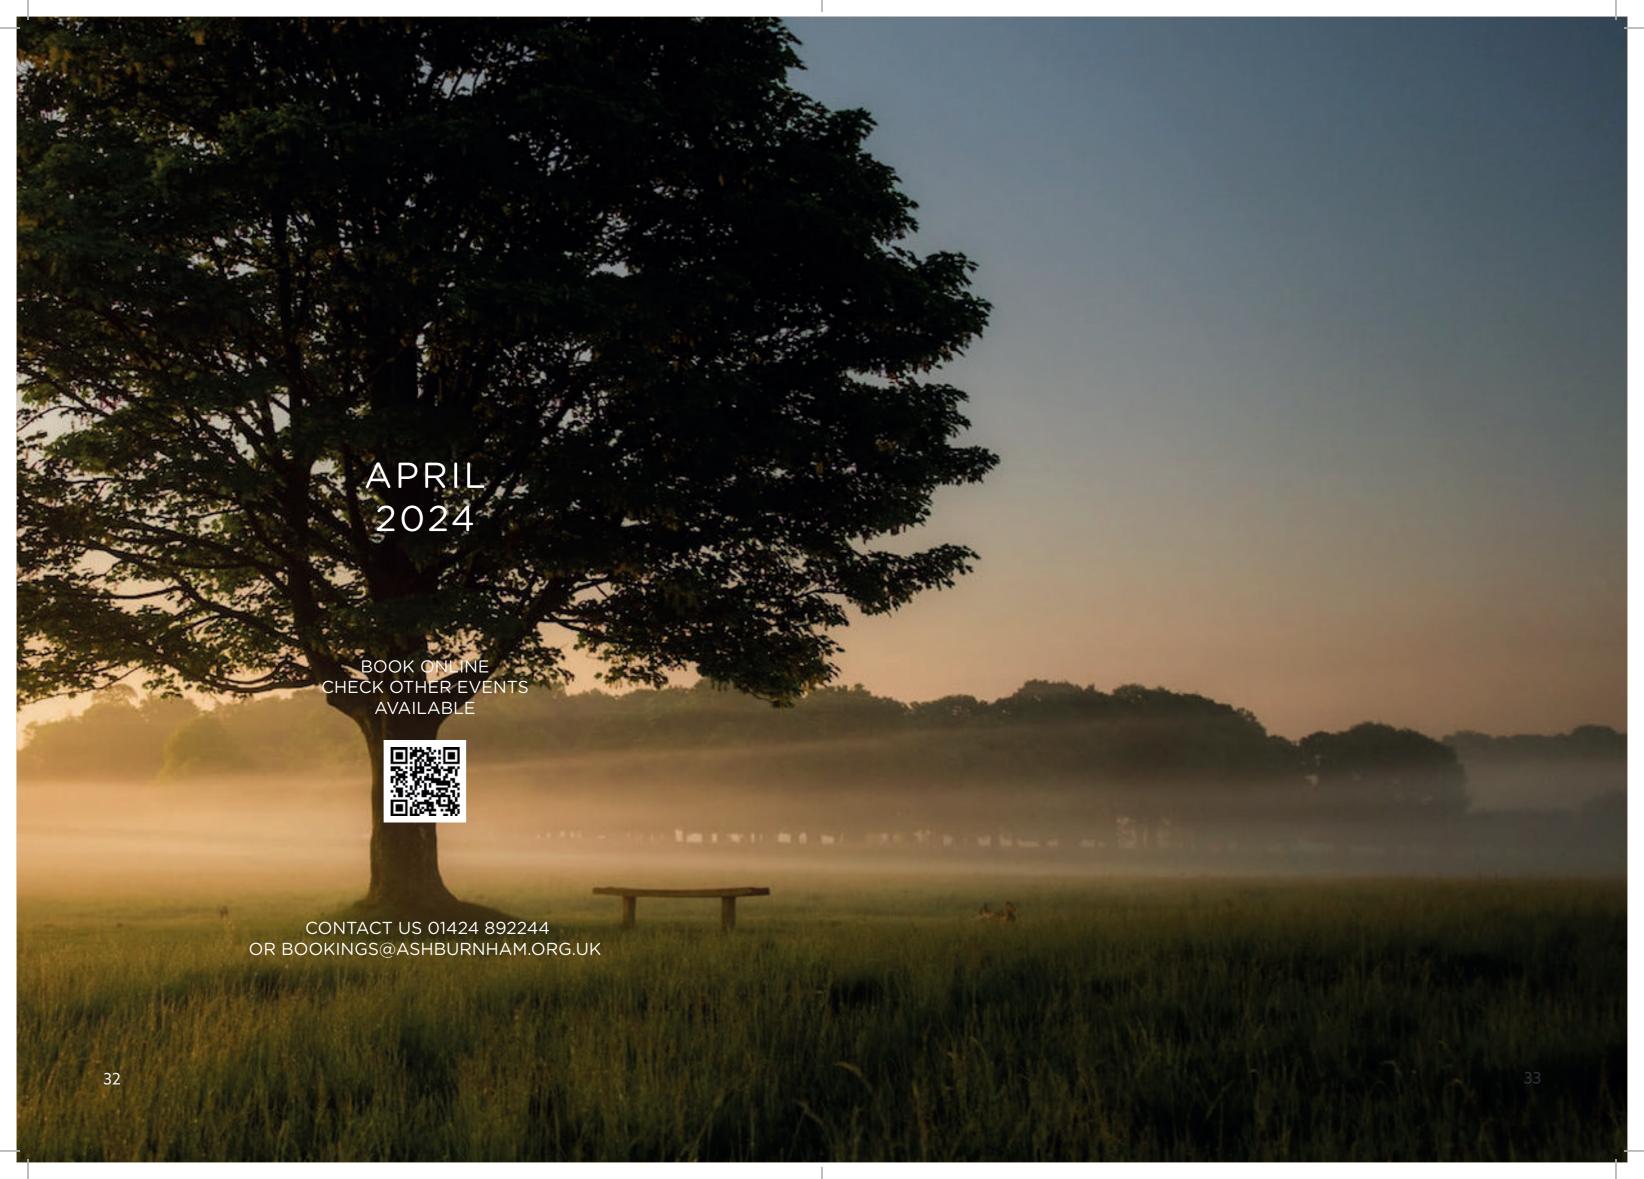

The retreat will be a mix of group, pair and solo work with plenty of space for prayer, quiet reflection and to enjoy the peace of the grounds and gardens.

This retreat is not suitable for those with no or little understanding of the Enneagram.

ASHBURNHAM PLACE APRIL 2024

Tuesday 23rd April 12 noon - Thursday 25th April 3pm Reconnecting to the Divine in Nature

Mike Mullins

Reconnecting to the divine in nature" is a retreat geared at Christians enquiring into the place of nature, creation and eco-spirituality in their faith. To help retreatants develop a deeper connection to and love for the sacredness of nature as an expression of the divine.

The retreat will immerse retreatants in God's creation – slowing us down to natures pace. Providing time for reflection, meditation, prayer and stillness inspired by nature. It will draw upon the Bible, the principles of Joanna Macy's "Active Hope", as well as evolutionary biology and the science of the history of the earth.

EVENTS & RETREATS MAY 2024

Tuesday 7th May 4pm - Friday 10th May 11am Stewarding Love, Grace, and Comfort Sharon Garlough Brown

When we hear the word, "stewardship," we often think in terms of time, talent, and treasures. But the Lord also entrusts other gifts to us that we are meant to steward, including his love, his grace, and his comfort in affliction.

Sharon Garlough Brown will lead us in practices of prayer that help us receive these gifts so that we might be enlarged to offer them to others. This retreat is based on content from her latest novel, Feathers of Hope.

Tuesday 21st May 4pm - Friday 24th May 10am Four Gospels, One Jesus Steve Wood

The four Gospels have been included in the canon of the New Testament from the beginning. There has never been a doubt that they belong there. But why four Gospels?

There is a basic harmony between the accounts of Jesus life recorded in the four Gospels. They agree on many of the details. Yet each Gospel presents a distinctive view of Jesus. Each of them makes a unique witness to Jesus which when joined together gives us a complete picture of who Jesus is.

In this study course we will explore the storyline, themes, focal points, and purpose of each Gospel in their portrayal of Jesus of Nazareth. Notes and further reading /study recommendations will be provided.

Steve is a member of the events team at Ashburnham, and with his wife Eve co-hosts the Time-Out breaks. He studied theology at Heythrop College (University of London), gaining a BA(Hons) in Biblical Studies and an MA in Christian Theology.

Tuesday 4th June 4pm - Friday 7th June 10am Immeasurably More

Rosie Morgan

Jesus promised us life in all its abundance.

Our God is the God of immeasurably more than we could ever ask, think, or imagine! He takes what we give Him and by His power at work in us, transforms it for His kingdom and glory.

We worship a God who can turn the ordinary into extra ordinary that which is dull into brightness, what seems insignificant into something of great significance, and what seems worthless into something precious.

Together we will look at stories and teachings that show how God has more for us, and how he wants us to live life in all its fullness with Him. Join us for a special time of teaching, reflection and worship in the beauty and splendour of Ashburnham place.

EVENTS CANCELLATION

Whilst we do, all within our power, to ensure our events proceed as programmed, inevitably things happen, and we have in the past needed to cancel events. Where this has happened, it has been due to speaker illness, where we can't get a replacement, or due to lack of bookings to make it viable. In the same way, we understand that there will be times where guests will also need to cancel their booking, and so we have created the following cancellation policy, to clarify what will happen in these situations.

EVENTS CANCELLATION BY ASHBURNHAM PLACE

Ashburnham Place reserves the right to modify the programme of any event up to the day of the event.

If 3 weeks prior to the event, guest numbers are low, Ashburnham Place will contact you to advise of its possible cancellation, and to tell you what would happen and when.

If unforeseen circumstances cause Ashburnham Place to cancel an event up to 3 days prior to the event, we shall inform you as soon as possible and offer you a full refund and the cost of any pre-booked travel expenses, on production of payment receipts.

EVENTS CANCELLATION BY YOU

If you wish to cancel a booking, please note the following cancellation conditions:

- In the event of cancelling your booking up to 6 weeks before the start/arrival date of the event, the deposit is non-refundable.
- For guests who cancel within six weeks of the start/arrival date of the event the full cost is non-refundable.

EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

If due to exceptional circumstances you cannot attend a booked Ashburnham Place event and do not wish to cancel, but would like to transfer to another future event, please contact our bookings office on 01424 892244 or bookings@ashburnham.org.uk who will assess each request subject to its own individual circumstance and the availability of the future event.

EXCEPTIONS: If you wish Ashburnham Place to consider exceptional circumstances, email us at bookings@ashburnham.org.uk

PLEASE NOTE: We strongly recommend that you take out personal holiday insurance to cover any cancellation fees.

GETTING TO ASHBURNHAM PLACE

Ashburnham Place is situated five miles west of Battle on the A271.

By Road

From South East London and the Dartford Tunnel. Take the A21 through Pembury, Lamberhurst and Robertsbridge. At John's Cross turn right on to the A2100 signposted to Battle. On the outskirts of Battle, at the roundabout, turn right on to the A271 signposted Bexhill. The entrance to Ashburnham Place is on the right, about four miles from Battle, 200 yards after a very sharp bend.

From South West London and Heathrow Airport

Take the M25 anti-clockwise to Junction 6 and then take the A22 through Godstone, East Grinstead, Forest Row and down to Horsebridge (the Boship Hotel roundabout). Take the second exit on to the A271. Continue through Magham Down, Herstmonceux and Windmill Hill to Boreham Street. After leaving Boreham Street the A271 turns left, signposted Battle. After about 2 miles you will see Ashburnham Place on the left hand side at the brow of the hill.
